Subject: Letter of Appreciation for Successful Student Development Program

Dear Dr. C. G. Dighavkar,

This has reference to a Student Development Program on Introduction to NoSQL Architecture with Mongo DB conducted for the students of your institution.

A total of 143 students participated in SDP and the same took place from 17th April'23 to 23rd April'23.

During the training program, we witnessed an enthusiastic response from the students, who actively participated in the sessions and demonstrated a keen interest in learning. We also received positive feedback from the students.

We hope that the students equipped them with valuable skills that are increasingly relevant in today's technology-driven world.

We believe that fostering such collaborative endeavors between EICT IIT, Kanpur and educational institutions is essential in preparing students for the challenges of the modern workforce.

Should you have any further requirements or wish to explore additional training offerings in the future, Please get in touch with us

Thank you for your support and cooperation.

Thanks & Regards

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MOU)

Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) for Inter Library Loan between Library Department of Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's, Panchavati College of Management and Computer Science 422003 and Library Department of Mahatma Gandhi Vidyamandir's, Loknete Vyanktrao Hiray Arts, Science & Commerce College, Panchavati, Nashik 422003.

I) Introduction :

This Memorandum of Understanding (here in after referred to as the "Memorandum") is not intended to be legally binding and no legal rights or obligations shall arise as a result of its terms except that the sections below relating Information Sharing & Confidentiality; and Intellectual Property shall be legally binding.

II) Vision:

This MOU sets out initial ideas for collaboration between the, Library Department of, MGVS Panchavati College of Management and Computer Science, Panchavati Nashik – 03 and Library Department of MGVS Loknete Vyanktrao Hiray Arts, Science & Commerce College, Panchavati, Nashik -03 built on mutual partnership, trust and respect.

There are certain parallels (e.g., some subjects and research intensity) as well as variances amongst our libraries (e.g. streams hierarchy and history). We want to collaborate to share our expertise and professional experience in order to promote best practices for both libraries. We hope to strengthen our library collaborations by formally connecting our libraries.

III) Mission :

The goal of this MOU is to establish standards for all faculty members and students at MGVS, Panchavati College of Management and Computer Science, Panchavati, Nashik – 03 and MGVS, Loknete Vyanktrao Hiray Arts, Science and Commerce College, Panchavati, Nashik – 03 in order to provide wide access to users and optimize the use of information resources. Raise awareness of strategic relationships and services among the educational college's employees, faculty, researchers, students, and users.

IV) Ideas for Collaboration

Staff may connect and exchange practical experience and future ideas on new library services, in a series of online events. The display and discoverability of collections in the digital domain, as well as the support of academic research and teaching with these resources, are all areas of interest.

Using excellent online collaboration mechanisms, the events may be kept short and light. They can be held with a regular or core group of individuals, or with a rotating number of people depending on the topic.

NOW THEREFORE, IN CONSIDERATION OF THE MUTUAL PROMISES SET FORTH IN THIS MOU, BOTH THE LIBRARIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

A. Responsibilities of Requesting Library

1. Use of Local Campus Resources

Study materials, such as study, research, and current and retrospective information resources, should be available in every library to suit the requirements of the clients. Any further material necessary can be obtained through an MOU from another library once all local campus resources have been exhausted.

2. Confidentiality and information sharing

All confidential information belonging to the other library that is communicated between them will be kept secret by each library, and all shared information shall only be utilized to carry out the terms of this Memorandum. Without the prior written approval of the other library, each library will ensure that any publicity is factual and not misleading.

3. Patron Education

Both the library and its users should be informed about the MOU's goal as well as the library's borrowing policy.

4. Copyright Act

Both the libraries are responsible to follow the intellectual property law and should inform it's users about Non-violence of this law.

5. Liability for Damage or Loss:

The requesting library is responsible for the safety of borrowed materials from the time they leave the providing library until they are returned to the supplying library. The requesting library is responsible for ensuring its safe return. If damage or loss occurs, the requesting library is responsible for any repair or replacement expenses, as determined by the providing library's preference.

6. Compliance with conditions of loan

The requesting library and its users must respect to the supplying library's borrowing conditions, which include responding to recalls in a timely manner. Unless the supplying library expressly prohibits it, copying by the requesting library is permissible as long as it is done in line with the copying law and no harm to the original volume occurs.

B. Responsibilities of Supplying Authority

1. Availability of Intercampus Lending Policy

Each lending or providing library should have up-to-date MOU policies and guidelines, as well as a resource sharing clause.

2. Prioritization Equality

The lending library should be as flexible as possible in extending borrowing terms in order to meet the users' educational, curricular, and research needs.

3. Choosing to Borrow

The providing library has loan or furnish content in its original format. Each library should be as generous as possible in making materials available to other users while keeping the primary user's interests in mind. The loan's terms should be explicitly disclosed, and the material should be returned with care.

4. Renewals

Renewal requests should be submitted on time. The supplying library should be as accommodating as feasible when it comes to renewals.

5. Recalls rights

Material on loan may be recalled at any time. Recall notices should be sent to libraries electronically in a form makes reference to them. Borrowing units should respond quickly to recall notifications and take local measures against non-compliant users.

6. Lost and Non-Returned Material

Supplying libraries shall issue a charge to the requesting library for the replacement of unreturned material and or any processing costs.

7. Obtaining copies

Under the MOU arrangement, the providing library should give copies of periodical articles and book chapters on demand. Electronic copies should be provided whenever available and at the discretion of the contributing library. Copies can also be sent by courier.

8. Duration of Loan

This MOU is at the discretion of the parties and may be valid with the mutual consent of both the Library's authorized personnel. This MOU will go into effect on June, 2021, and will last until May 31, 2026, if both parties sign it.

9. Material for Mode of Transportation

Any material on loan is subject to personal borrowing by the patron of the MOU plan by providing a letter from the asking library's authority. Borrowed materials should be returned to the lending library in person. There is no other form of material transmission available, save for e-material, which can be sent to the patron's e-mail address if it is available.
