Policy for Financial Support to the Teachers

Policy Title: Policy for Financial Support to the Teachers

Policy Statement: Empowering the teaching staff through the provision of Welfare and Career

Advancement Schemes

Scope: The Policy is applicable to all teaching staff of the college.

Objectives:

- 1. To assist the teachers in financial crisis by availing loan facilities through the staff credit society
- 2. To motivate the faculty to attend Seminars and Conferences by availing the seed money for the registration
- 3. Enhancing the mobility of the teachers for academic purposes by availing them of a traveling allowance.
- 4. To work for the welfare of the teachers
- 5. To promote Research and Development culture
- 6. To create a secured and protected ambiance for the teaching staff.

Guidelines and Responsibilities

- 1. The college to ensure that there should not be any discrimination in availing financial support to the teaching staff.
- 2. The person /teacher who desires to have the facility of financial support should apply for it through the proper channel.
- 3. The teacher should supply all necessary and authentic documents with the application.

- 4. The teacher should agree with the Terms and Conditions laid down by the college for such financial support.
- 5. In the case of a loan facility, the loan should be paid off within the stipulated period of time.
- 6. If the teacher claims seed money for the academic seminars and conferences he/she should provide a certificate of attendance and registration receipt.
- 7. The grant for academic support will be availed only after the verification of the documents.
- 8. Teachers can also submit an application to the UGC for travel grants to attend academic gatherings in foreign countries through the endorsement of the college.
- 9. Teachers can also apply to the Govt/ UGC Grants for Major/ Minor Research Projects through the college.
- 10. The limit for the financial assistance is decided by the college administration.
